

*For three magical evenings,
the bush will come alive to a different kind of trumpeting.*

Sunset Serenade

Kruger National Park | 10 -14 May 2017

The Conservation Services Unit of the SANParks Honorary Rangers cordially invites you to an extended weekend of music in the bush.

Over the years, this unforgettable event has become a firm favourite of both music and nature lovers. Performed by an ensemble of classic musicians in and near the Mopani Rest Camp, overlooking the Pioneer Dam, Mopani is situated 74km from the Phalaborwa Gate.

Three classical concerts in three unique bush venues.

Before each concert and during intervals, guests are treated to chilled sundowners. After each performance, they'll enjoy a delicious three-course dinner on the deck at the Mopani Rest Camp in the Tindlovu Restaurant with a wonderful view of the Pioneer Dam.

Prices depend on type of accommodation. All prices include three concerts, three dinners and four night's accommodation.
